

- 1) Jesus' question to Philip "Where shall we buy bread for these people to eat?" was a test! What do you think Jesus expected as an answer?
- 2) No doubt feeding the thousands was a big project. What is the difference between Philip's approach and response (verse 7) and Andrews' response (verse 9)?
- 3) Montreal has thousands that need to be fed spiritually. The need is great! But how can we use the little we have so they can hear the word of God and be filled?
- 4) What was the first thing Jesus did after taking the bread and fish (Mark 6: 41, Luke 9: 16). What is the lesson? How can you apply this in a practical way? Do not limit your answer just to food!
- 5) A lesson in service and administration! What were the things that Jesus asked his disciples to do in this miracle?
 - a.
 - b.
 - c.
- 6) In question 5, Jesus did what the disciples could not do, and asked them to do the things they could do. How can you apply this in your ministry and personal life?
- 7) Why did Jesus go to the mountain by himself (Matthew 14: 22-23, Mark 6: 44-47). What is the lesson?
- 8) What are your expectations after obeying the Lord?
The disciples obeyed the Lord and took the ship toward Capernaum, Why did they face the strong wind, and the rough sea?
- 9) What re-assures you as you pass through a life storm?
(Mark 6: 48)
(John 17: 15-17)
(Hebrews 7: 25)
(1 Peter 5: 7)
