

- 1) What did she discovered about Jesus, and what made her believe and start a new life?
- 2) Why did she leave her water jar at the well and went away to the town? What spiritual lessons do we have here?
- 3) Jesus said the following: What is the spiritual meaning of each, and which applies most to your Christian life?
 - a. The sower
 - b. The reaper
 - c. The fields are already white for harvesting
 - d. Look! I tell you, raise your eyes and observe
 - e. The reward
- 4) Jesus used the essential need for food (nourishment) as a metaphor to emphasize the importance and criticality of doing the Will of God (i.e. the ministry). Share with the group the stages a malnourished person falls into; how to avoid this spiritually? Can you give another essential need to highlight the importance of living for God?
- 5) What evangelistic method did Jesus follow with the Samaritan woman? Place them in the correct order.
 - a. ___ Answered her questions
 - b. ___ Pointed to her a deeper & a more urgent need -- her spiritual need
 - c. ___ Started a normal conversation
 - d. ___ Asked questions that created the need to want to know more about Jesus
 - e. ___ Corrected her wrong belief with kind words, showing patience and love
 - f. ___ Transitioned from a normal everyday conversation to a spiritual one
- 6) It is written that the king's officer believed twice. How is that? Is it enough to have an intellectual belief? And what is the difference? Explain!
 - a. John 4 : 50
 - b. John 4: 54
- 7) What is the difference between visual Faith (i.e. seeing is believing); and the faith God is looking for? Explain!
- 8) Share with the group the lessons you learned from the king's officer when facing difficulties, e.g. sickness, financial or emotional hardship, stress, worries, etc.